FROM

Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore.

To

S. Shamanna, Esq., B.A.,
Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore, Financial Department.

SIR,

Enhancement of the scale of pay of the Peshkars of the Nanjangud and Melkote Temples.

I have the honor to state that in G.O.No.1900-903/Muz.82-17-5 dated 8th February 1918 it was directed that the post of Peshkar of the Sri Srikanteswaraswami temple at Nanjangud and Sri Narayanaswami temple at Melkote be roughly of the rank of a Taluk Sheristedar and that the pay of the appointment be fixed at R 50-3-60 per mensem. With the permanent addition to the pay of all Government officials in lieu of high price allowance, the pay was raised to R. 57-3-67. The Peshkar of Nanjangud is drawing pay in this grade. But owing apparently to a misreading of the order, the successive Peshkars of the Melkote temple have been placed in grade R. 55-2-65. As the pay of Taluk Sheristedars has been fixed at R. 60-4-80 after the re-organisation of the Revenue Department in 1930, the existence of slightly different grades for the two Peshkars has become anomalous and inconvenient, preventing as it does the transfer of officials from the charge of the temples to general service and vice versa. This question having been taken up with the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, he has recommended that the salary of both the Peshkars be fixed at R. 60-4-80 so as to correspond with the pay of Taluk Sheristedars and the officials of the Revenue Department.

2. At the same time, he has pointed out that the pay and pensionary contribution of the Peshkar of the Melkote temple are being debited to the funds of the Sri Narayanaswami temple alone and that it is equitable that the Sri Yoga Narasimhaswami temple should also bear a portion of the above charges in proportion to its income as the Peshkar exercises as much control over it as in the case of Sri Narayanaswami temple.

3. In agreement with these views, I recommend that the pay of the Peshkars of these two temples may be raised to R. 60-4-80 exclusive of pensionary contribution, the pay and pensionary contribution in the case of the Melkote Peshkar, being met from the Sri Narayanaswami and Sri Yoga Narasimhaswami temples in proportion to their annual income.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.
